

Local companies will be setting course for Margam Park next month to take part in Wales' biggest boat show

All at sea

PEMBROKESHIRE will be well represented at this year's South Wales Boat Show in Margam Park, with several businesses from the county joining the 200-plus exhibitors at the maritime spectacular.

Now in its third year the Boat Show will be taking place between June 13 and 15 against the impressive backdrop of Margam Castle.

It is a prestigious setting for what has become both a prestigious trade show and a popular family day out.

All types of water-based activities are covered by the show, from fishing and sailing to surfing and powerboating. It should be the perfect appetiser for SeaFair Milford Haven which begins the following week.

Although Margam Park isn't on the coast, it does boast a large lake, and this will be used to full advantage, with 'Come and Try' events featuring canoes, sailing dinghies,